Cowtales

Cow Tales are chewy caramel ropes with a creamy vanilla filling running through the center. They're known for their long shape and nostalgic flavor that balances rich caramel with smooth sweetness.

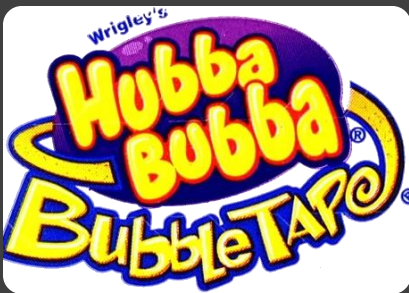

Rock Candy Sticks

Rock Candy Sticks are large sugar crystals grown onto wooden sticks, giving them a sparkling, gem-like look. They're extremely sweet and are as popular for decoration and science projects as they are for eating.

Atomic Fireballs

Atomic Fireballs are small, hard candies famous for their intense cinnamon heat. As the layers dissolve, the spicy flavor keeps going strong all the way to the center.

Hubba Bubba Tape

Hubba Bubba Tape is bubble gum rolled into a flat ribbon that looks like a measuring tape. It's soft, easy to tear to any length, and designed for blowing big bubbles.

Crybaby Sour Gum

Crybaby Sour Gum packs an extreme sour punch at first, followed by a sweet bubble gum flavor. It's known for making faces pucker before mellowing out enough to chew and blow bubbles.

Nerds

Nerds are small, crunchy candies available in bright fruit flavors like grape, strawberry, and watermelon. They're known for their tangy taste and bite-sized pieces that pour easily from the box.

Tootsie Pops

Tootsie Pops are hard candy lollipops with a chewy chocolate-flavored Tootsie Roll center. They come in a variety of classic fruit flavors and offer a mix of crunchy and chewy textures.

Sugar Daddy

Sugar Daddy is a caramel lollipop with a dense, chewy consistency. Its slow-to-eat texture makes it a longer-lasting candy compared to many other lollipops.

Jolly Ranchers

Jolly Ranchers are hard candies known for their bold, long-lasting fruit flavors. They stay solid as you eat them and keep their intense taste until they fully dissolve.

Big League Chew

Big League Chew is shredded bubble gum packaged in a pouch, designed to look like loose chewing tobacco. It has a soft texture and comes in multiple fruity flavors made for bubble blowing.

Ring Pops

Ring Pops are hard candy gems molded into a wearable ring shape. They're sweet, brightly colored, and let you enjoy candy hands-free.

Smarties

Smarties are small, round tablet candies with a light, chalky texture and mild fruity flavor. They're often stacked in rolls and dissolve quickly in your mouth.

Razzles

Razzles start as a candy and then transform into gum as you chew. They have a fruity taste and offer a mix of crunchy and chewy textures.

Pop Rocks

Pop Rocks are small candy crystals that crackle and pop when they touch your tongue. They dissolve quickly while releasing bursts of flavor and fizzing sensations.

Double Bubble Gum

Double Bubble is classic pink bubble gum with a soft, chewy texture. It's known for its mild sweetness and being easy to blow large bubbles.
